From the Desk of Fr. Callahan...

Dear parishioners and friends,

I am happy to inform you that we have raised $168,813.00 or 96.46% of our $175,000.00 goal for the Sacred Places matching grant! This amount represents participation from all sectors of our parish community, alumni of our schools, former parishioners, and friends. Whether a very significant amount, or a humble contribution, all who have supported this project should feel very proud. Architect Sara Peters and colleagues visited a couple of weeks ago for an initial assessment of the church building and fact gathering to prioritize restoration work. We have also had meetings with representatives from the National Fund for Sacred Places. They are pleased with our progress in all aspects of the project. We will keep you informed. I am very grateful for your continued interest.

Next Saturday is the annual Diocesan celebration of Faith and Culture. It will take place at St. Bernard Parish, Akron. The theme is the Spirituality of Immigrants. Bishop Evelio Menjivar, recently named Bishop of Wheeling – Charleston, WV will develop this theme from his personal experience. He arrived to the USA as an undocumented youth, worked menial jobs, studied, entered the seminary, was ordained a priest here, later auxiliary bishop of Washington, D.C. It promises to be a great presentation, as well as celebration of cultures through food and folklore. All are welcome!

In Christ, Father Joseph H. Callahan

MINISTERIO HISPANO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Tengo la dicha de informarles que ya tenemos $168,813.00 o 96.46% de la meta de $175,000.00 para el 'grant' que duplicará nuestros esfuerzos de la renovación de los ladrillos del templo. Me alegra que hayan participado personas de todos sectores de la parroquia, y también amigos y gente que en el pasado pertenecía a la parroquia. La arquitecta Sara Peters ha venido para hacer un análisis del edificio con el motivo de formular un plan de trabajo para la restauración del templo. También, hemos tenido comunicación de la agencia donante y están muy impresionados con el progreso del proyecto. Estaremos informándoles de los avances. ¡Mil gracias por su colaboración!

Atentamente en Cristo, Pbro. Joseph H. Callahan
