From the Desk of Fr. Callahan...

Dear parishioners and friends,

Many of the world leaders recently gathered at the United Nations and talked about Artificial Intelligence (AI). Pope Leo XIV, on his apostolic visit to France, added to the discussion. An article on the internet was titled: "Pope Leo XIV attracted multitudes in Paris and warned of the "paradise of the machines of AI."

In the encyclical letter Magnifica Humanitas (MH) the pope presents us with this profound and important reflection:

"…(A)s a believer among believers, I invite everyone to contemplate, in the face of the Son of God, the grandeur of humanity that shines a light also on the era of AI. In Christ, we are called to cooperate in the work of creation, rather than be disinterested observers of technological processes that limit our freedom and responsibility.… No computational system, however sophisticated, can create a heart that gives itself, or a conscience that discerns good from evil. Even when machines excel in efficiency, a human face that asks to be gazed upon remains the center of our history.…" (MH, 233).

It is important to reflect upon these thoughts. And we thank God for giving us such a great leader.

In Christ, Father Joseph H. Callahan.

MINISTERIO HISPANO

Queridos feligreses y amigos,

Muchos líderes mundiales reunidos en las Naciones Unidas hicieron referencia a la Inteligencia Artificial (IA). En su viaje apostólico a Francia, el Papa León XIV también contribuyó a la discusión. De hecho, un artículo en el internet fue titulado: "El Papa León XIV atrae a multitudes en París y advierte sobre el "paraíso de las máquinas de la IA."

En la carta encíclica Magnifica Humanitas (MH), su santidad presenta un hermoso y profundo pensamiento:

"… (C)omo creyente entre creyentes, invito a contemplar en el rostro del Hijo una magnífica humanidad que también ilumina la época de la IA. En Cristo comprendemos que el hombre está llamado a ser colaborador en la obra de la creación, y no espectador resignado ante los procesos tecnológicos que limitan su libertad y su responsabilidad. …La dignidad que el Espíritu Santo esculpe en cada uno de nosotros se reconoce también en la capacidad de reflexionar críticamente, de elegir y amar gratuitamente, y de establecer relaciones auténticas. Ningún sistema de cálculo, por sofisticado que sea, genera un corazón que se entrega, ni una conciencia capaz de discernir el bien. Incluso cuando las máquinas sobresalen en eficiencia, el centro de la historia sigue siendo un rostro humano que exige ser contemplado. Este rostro humano es la plenitud hacia la que camina la historia."(MH, 233).

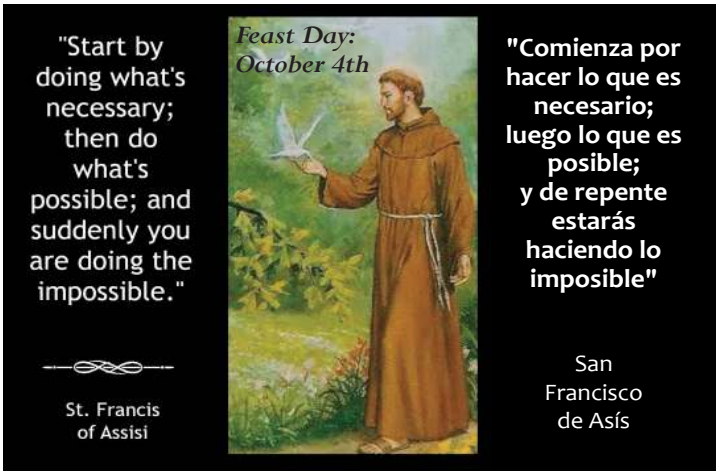

Hemos de reflexionar estas enseñanzas y darle gracias al Todopoderoso por regalarnos un líder tan sabio.

Atentamente en Cristo, Pbro. Joseph H. Callahan
