From the Desk of Fr. Callahan...

Dear parishioners and friends,

In his first encyclical Magnifica Humanitas Pope Leo XIV assures us that we are not without hope in the age Artificial Intelligence (AI). We should never lose hope in times of change. Because it is precisely in the face of change that God shows the strength of his arm, scatters the proud, lifts up the lowly, fills the hungry with good things, and sends the rich empty away. That is what Mary proclaimed as she faced the challenge of a huge change in her life. She bursts into a hymn of praise and joy. Her soul magnifies the Lord and her spirit rejoices in God her Savior, because he chose a young, poor, and humble girl for his plan of salvation. (MH 243).

In the end, this is the question posed: What ultimately safeguards humanity? A civilization of love, that we build in relationship with God and others. What protects us in an age of AI? Remembering that it is a tool that we use, not a tool that uses us. What brings us hope in this rapidly changing era? The face of Jesus Christ, the nourishment of the Eucharist, and communion with one another.

We thank God for the Holy Father's teachings in this complicated time. We pray for his continued recovery and health.

In Christ, Father Joseph H. Callahan.

St. Josaphat Kuntsevych (1580 – 1623)

Eastern Rite Bishop, Martyr for Church Unity, Defender of the Faith.
Obispo Rito Oriental, Martir por unidad de la iglesia y Defensor de la Fe.

FEAST DAY NOVEMBER 12

St. Josaphat, Mykola Azovskyj, 1946

St. Josaphat was born in what is now Belarus, during a time of great religious and political turmoil. During his lifetime worked for the reunion of eastern rite Christians with the Catholic Church. He was murdered by an Orthodox mob in 1623.

San Josafat nació en lo que hoy es Bielorrusia, durante una época de gran agitación religiosa y política. Durante su vida trabajó por la reunificación de los cristianos de rito oriental con la Iglesia Católica. Fue asesinado por una multitud ortodoxa en 1623.

Oh Father, full of goodness, who sent your Holy Spirit to Bishop Josaphat to make him capable of giving his life for his people, we ask you to also send your divine Spirit to all your children today, so that, strengthened by Your divine love and very united in faith in Jesus Christ, your beloved Son and our Lord, we too may receive the grace to give our lives for our brothers and sisters. Amen. (www.vaticannews.va)

Oh Padre, lleno de bondad, que enviaste tu Santo Espíritu al obispo Josafat para hacerlo capaz de ofrendar la vida por su pueblo,te suplicamos que también hoy mandes tu Espíritu divino a todos tus hijos, para que, fortalecidos por Su caridad divina, y muy unidos en la confesión de la fe en Jesucristo, tu Hijo amado, y Señor nuestro, también nosotros recibamos la gracia de dar la vida por nuestros hermanos. Así sea.

MINISTERIO HISPANO

Queridos feligreses y amigos,

En su primera carta encíclica Magnifica Humanitas, el papa León XIV nos asegura que no nos quedemos sin esperanza en esta época de Inteligencia Artificial (IA). No hemos de perder la esperanza frente a grandes cambios. Precisamente, en grandes cambios Dios muestra su poder, deshace a los soberbios y sus planes, exalta a los humildes, colma de bienes a los hambrientos y despide a los ricos con manos vacías. Así proclamó la Virgen María anticipando un enorme cambio en su vida. Su alma proclama la grandeza del Señor y su espíritu se exalta en Dios su Salvador, porque Él eligió a una joven pobre y pequeña para su plan de salvación. (MH 243).

Al fin y al cabo, el desafío es: ¿Qué va a proteger la humanidad? La civilización de amor. Amor a Dios y amor a los demás. ¿Qué nos protege en la época de IA? Recordar que es una herramienta que el hombre utiliza, y no es una herramienta que utiliza al hombre. ¿Cómo encontramos esperanza en el contexto de tantos cambios? En el rostro de Jesucristo, el alimento de la Eucaristía, y la comunión con los demás.

Le damos gracias a Dios por las enseñanzas de Su Santidad León XIV. Y recemos mucho por su recuperación y su salud.

Atentamente en Cristo, Pbro. Joseph H. Callahan
